ADMISSION POLICY: LBM Expo is a convention and exposition designed specifically for the retail segment of the lumber and building material (LBM) industry. LBM professionals, educators, students, and members of affiliated organizations are invited to attend. Everyone is required to wear a badge issued by LBM Expo to enter the exposition education and special events. Transferring or lending a badge to another person is a violation of show rules and a misrepresentation to exhibitors and management. Anyone wishing to sell products or services at LBM Expo must contract for exhibit space. Selling on the trade show floor without an exhibit booth is unfair to other exhibitors and is strictly prohibited. Violation of these policies will result in expulsion from the show and confiscation of the badge. Admission is complimentary for college students and press with valid I.D. Badges must be picked up on-site. Educators who plan to bring students should contact the LBM Expo office no later than Monday, Jan. 21, 2019. Qualified press who plan to attend should contact the LBM Expo office no later than Monday, Jan. 21, 2019.

CANCELLATION/SUBSTITUTION POLICY: All cancellations must be received in writing at Northeastern Retail Lumber Association (NRLA), 585 N. Greenbush Rd., Rensselaer, NY 12144. Cancellations postmarked ON OR BEFORE Jan. 21, 2019 will receive a full refund, and accordingly may result in monies owed on special quantity discount pricing. For any cancellations arising after this date, it is permissible to send an alternate attendee. That person can change the name on the badge at registration.
